Newsletter

Meeting: March 12, 2018, 7:00 p.m.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I'm writing this "IT'S A SNOW DAY!!!!!!"

I'm retired...you'd think this wouldn't excite me. But, it seems that the radio just gave me permission to hunker down inside. Sew.....Life is good. Ha!

We get into the best conversations at VP day. I love those sewing days where you get a better chance to talk to members and see what they have going on.

Both Susan Gordon and Liz Drennan worked on comfort quilts. They have personal goals regarding how many they'll do this year and that work is well underway.

They take donated fabric and create quilts that hug kids who really need one.

If you have any spare fabric that you think would make a child happy, they'd love to turn it into something special. And don't forget boys — always looking for boys' fabric.

So ... enjoy the last blast of winter!
And don't forget ... life is short .... buy the fabric.

Diane Luke
